introduction

The following description merges astrophysical data at the moment of new Moon with archetypal patterns garnered from astrological correlations which are then harmonized with the premise that Creator's infinite perfection is first, has been first and always will be first. All is perfection.

The balance and harmony during moment of new Moon has the potential to manifest Joy in our lives as we allow ourselves to be our own authority. During new Moon how we reflect on who we are and our I Am merge. This creates opportunities to initiate new beginnings.

Through the clarity of my mind I connect and communicate with others, knowing WE ARE ONE and their presence like my own is the presence of Creator. The teacher within me awakens and boldly holds the intention to be in the loop of Creator's awareness. The strength to remember who I am manifests through my ability to own my emotional reactions. Since I am impeccable at being my own authority, I am, as my God Spirit self, the architect of my experience. As we listen, speak, and share our experience with each other we are quick to find the spiritual reason behind our immediate responsibilities as these selfless duties and our attention to them is the purification of humanities truth about who we are. I am committed to remembering who I am as a God Spirit being in human form.

To access the opportunities of new Moon energy you must be clear about being your own authority. When it comes to your own healing and awakening know that you must do it your self. Move into a state of self responsibility. There are things you have to do yourself, no one else can take your hand and fix certain things. These things are set-ups designed to show you your power to balance and harmonize your living dynamics by accepting them as your creations. The part of you who is absolutely clear that you create your own reality, who knows that life is a mirror, is the part of you who can ride this rainbow of energy with willful expression, holding frequency intention enthusiastically and joyously through to manifestation. Your sense of magnified self acceptance will serve you well during new Moon period.

general description

01 Much of the growth of Gaia bound creatures is allowed and supported by what occurs just beneath the surface of the Earth. In a sense we can feel the womb nature of what dynamically occurs just beneath our feet. It is within this moist darkened place where potential is prompted to move. The dairies of anyone's soul journey is surely to include a rendezvous with this place. A seed on the surface can linger on for an eternity contemplating notions of grandeur. What is the difference between a contemplated experience and an actualized one? When the seed of the Christed self accepts the experience of a moist heart the bio human activates a divine itinerary and signals sensual participation within a grand orgasmic union within Gaia. The Christed human moves potential into actualization by moving through the fertility cycles of the divine character of Gaia. Our orgasmic union with Gaia yields much bliss. Honoring and rejoicing in the temporal experience allows the music of self acceptance to orchestrate itself activating cosmic proportions of the sensual self. Earth lovers know these songs. An expanding self awareness which includes the embracing of sensuality and the bio experience expands the human experience.

02 During this particular Moon cycle anchoring the birth of the multi-dimensional self in human form brings the evolving human to the reality of the moist heart where the primordial temporal self is embraced within the accepting body of Gaia. This new Moon in Cancer also has Ceres the nurturer in conjunction with Mars, the conjunction occurs in Taurus. Expressions of Creator's allowing nature nurturer the evolving self by impulsing the self into the primordial territory of Gaia's body.

03 Doorways to sensuality have been boarded up and shut down by paradigms defined and accepted as truth. This boarding up of sensual gateways leads us eventually to experience called boredom. To take the plunge we must be willing to cancel our boredom ticket and agree to get curious. Agree to take a different ride. The depths of self are holographic and not linear and as such the plunge is a sensual experience as opposed to rationalized linear qualifying.

04 The depths of self are ancient and mysterious, like caves which tunnel deep into the Earth, the pathways of sensuality have been traveled before. Ancient memories when allowed and trusted take us deep into the bio being charging and impulsing passions. On the walls of these metaphoric caves are drawings and art, these too are like powerful symbols which act as keys. A glimpse upon a single artistic expression triggers a response which stirs and hums the cells into anticipated excitement. The ancient corridors of the sensual human lead the sovereign self on a journey into Earth's history. This history parallels a human history, a bloodline history.

05 Gaia as a being of unconditional acceptance has allowed celestial beings to seed a portion of themselves within her body. A flowering of multi creatures exists springing from the womb of Gaia the great Mother. These multi-creatures create a symbiotic relationship, each individual seeded life form fits into this symbiotic harmony. The integrity of each seeded creature epitomizes an agenda of harmony facilitating the symbiotic nature of Mother Earth. The original plan of Gaia is a divine plan, an ancient plan. This original plan is formulated around an intention of harmony.

06 Through a process of personal admission we begin questioning the paradigms which have been actively authoring our experience. What lies beyond the boredom of terror, intimidation, fear, and anger? Accepting our ticket to journey deep into our ancient history we question the rationalizations which have qualified terror, intimidation, fear, and anger. Our propensity to objective acceptance is epitomized by our acceptance of our creative power. The law of attraction is not about creating financial abundance, or attracting security within the fiefdoms defined by external authorities. By examining our fears we have been able to id rationalizations which qualified those fears. Isn't that interesting? These rationalizations point directly at who we have allowed to be our authority. Now we ask ourselves "Where's the fun in that? Where's the value in that? How are we honoring Mother Earth?" How simple can it be? Fear based paradigms spring from the notion of a solid world.

07 Beliefs of a solid world and beliefs in a Darwinistic evolutionary linear progress of humanity have lead to a griping of the solid world. Fear and limitation spring from such beliefs. Once the current local human who is living and experiencing in such paradigms realizes that all is energy, and that we are actually quite creative, interesting things begin to happen. If we do not move forward you can be sure that your sovereign self, your spirit self, your higher self, will pull out all the stops and use it's trusted secret weapon, boredom.

08 The holographic plunge is an awakening to the grand parallels which make up existence, our existence. As a bio human we have been unconditionally accepted into the symbiotic party of Gaia's divinity. The linear mind has cultivated for us distractions which have sidelined our curiosity and hijacked our innocence. Our distractions boarded up the sensual pathways which lead to conscious participation within the grandness of Gaia's organic symbiosis. De-evolution of the human species parallels a distortion within Gaia's grand symbiosis. Self love reverses the distraction and allows curiosity to access pools of innocence. As humanity awakens to it's holographic nature, penetration into the annals of ancient times bursts onto the local scene. Delusions of separation disintegrate as the experience of sensual symbiosis is remembered and cherished.

09 In couples relationships where mutual respect has found a home a great doorway opens up. A doorway which leads to the rich abundance offered by Mother Earth. Her nurturing quality responds to the passionate frequency a loving couple creates. This same doorway shuts down when the frequencies of domination infiltrate a couples relationship. Loving couples receptive to creative thought, inspired by the presence of each other, stretch and reach out into forgotten memories of harmonic organic living. Teamwork is supported and justified by inspirational congruency which permeates every aspect of their shared experience.

10 Relationships laden with indecision signal, on an individual level, the need to look at the consistency and quality of their own self love and self acceptance. Once it is clearly known and accepted that the individual creates their own reality they stand up for themselves by accepting their relating experience as their creation as opposed to blaming their partner.

11 The socially rich and powerful can feel threatened by innocence and beauty. Natural beauty can be breath taking and awe inspiring. When the self proclaimed powerful attempt to own and possess such beauty by gripping and demanding they squelch their own ability to appreciate Creator's presence in the very beauty they seek.

12 With Saturn in Leo and Neptune in Aquarius we as individuals are checking into our self admiration. Exact oppositions between Saturn and Neptune began back last August of 2006 and returned beginning of March 2007 and again in June of 2007. Now with the Sun moving into Leo we can shine some light on how our new self image is doing. Self admiration in many will be experienced as something that needs to be redefined. If our self admiration is based on external validation of some sort a clearly defined self image is necessary in order to feel comfort in that external world. Neptune being the keeper of isness within us dissolves that which implies separation within our psyche. Neptune in opposition to Saturn forces the individual to raise the bar as we/they attempt to redefine the self. How self admiring can a person be and yet remain totally selfless? Fleshing out internally serviced paradigms which have historically defined our connection to isness or oneness, pushes beliefs to the surface and challenges the resident ego to locate a belief about self which can satisfy both selflessness and self admiration. Who will you become as you remain both self admiring and selfless? Our notions and beliefs of selflessness rush to the surface of our personality and demand qualification now. The model or archetype by which the ego restructures the self image must contain within that personality a defined oneness. In some cases religious models act as patterns which keep the balance between the decisiveness of Saturn and the dispersion of Neptune in tack. Being aware of this current astro transit allows one the choice to stand by sort of speak and flow with character or personality alterations without the need to solidify or qualify the self definition until the morphing process is completed. Saturn will remain in Leo until September 2nd. The ego may not be the best or most trusted authority for culling the elixir while the evolving human continues to move through this current phase of gestation. This is due to the tendency for the ego to be enamored by the solid world and as such the restructuring of the self admiration will, from the ego's perspective, require external validation. From a place of divine nonchalance the truly unique self is not distracted by the need to have self admiration confirmed through external validation. Self admiration which requires external validation leads to needs for confirmation and acceptance of one's selflessness from others. Self admiration affiliated with divine nonchalance is free from the need for external validation and epitomizes a natural organic and celestial alignment.

13 If you are experiencing a lot of physical energy it is likely your nurturing quality which currently makes it so. Concerns for your home, any needs which assist domestic security, connect you with personal energy. For the pagan minded, I love you, it is your heart felt concern and respect for Gaia which will impulse you with courage and strength. In whatever way you relate to practical nurturing you will qualify for entraining to it's current strength. There is however a caveat to being receptive to this energy, you must admire yourself. Yes, self love or self admiration of some sort must be in your frequency in order for you to align harmoniously to this physical strength. One of the interesting things these days, and for approximately an entire year now, is the restructuring self image. As the Sun moves into Leo you can experience a settling into your new self image. Your self image will be all over the place if you have been in denial about who your authority is. Authority here also refers to who we think our gods are, who created us humans. Those who have been impeccable with their personal admission will begin to galvanize their new self image. This self knowing will yield the key to physical strength necessary to secure a harmony and security with your home, Mother Earth.

14 Are you feeling inventive? For the artistically creative don't be shy, there is a brilliant creative energy this Moon cycle. Especially for those who love to paint, draw, dance, sculpt, compose, you name it. Anything which is compassionately inspired will collect expressive emotional energy for you to model your inner self externally through artistic means. Artists can get right in there and pull out some unusual pieces. Do not be surprised if your art is a little different. Artistic expressions which were left out of your typical expression may return. For those who do not consider themselves artist, no way, you're in there too. Music of the spheres is at hand and can manifest in just about any way. You could be writing a play, a poem, designing a web site, laying out your stones, decorating or gardening. Here is the thing, it will be related to a tapping into the shared emotional body, touching upon collective feelings. Also the artistic expression will likely be unusual in some way. Perhaps everything is unusual about your art and so some may not even notice if their expression is unusual. Another angle or aspect to this expression is diplomacy, can art heal a rift? You may even experience this art in the dream state, yes we are certainly artistic in our dreaming. This expression of compassion will be connected to other memories in some way. As in returning to or activating an unclaimed talent or even connecting to a compassion driven past life. Artistic expression is magical in the way that it allows us to balance our emotional and mental bodies. It's all very Pisces!

15 The past returns in terms of couplings, lovers who can share it all. Unfinished business of a sensual nature returns to set the animal instinct free. Freedom when shared with a partner will bring in the most basic human desire of sensual expression and at the same time teach, or remind, the relating pair of their chosen path of free expression. Was the instinctive animal self denied? If so a coupling relationship will not feel complete with out the full Monty. Apart of feeling appreciated is the healing of the instinctual self such that the entire human is honored in the sharing. There is a utopian self acceptance here which drives the relationship to potentially new levels of valuing each other. Of course it goes without saying the coupling will bridge spiritual energy in their lives as this is apart of the freedom healing. Once again the quality of one's self admiration comes into the picture. Those who have a dithering self image because they are not clear as to their divine connection will confuse themselves in a relationship and likely their partner as well. Knowing you are a multi-dimensional holographic being having a bio human experience will allow a healing to occur through sensual sharing activating a personal and shared rainbow bridge (12 chakra alignment).

16 Panicking over personal security is always an individual choice. When you know the law of attraction you know fear is a choice. Whatever you choose there is lots of physical energy here for people who are concerned about security. The quality of the assertion of that energy will be determined however by one's self acceptance. The degree to which an individual can remain aware of themselves while merging with existence is an indication as to the quality of their self acceptance.

17 The Mother Goddess energy is always ready to receive the spirit of creative inspiration which carries within it the celestial harmonic of divine love. Through mutual resonance, respect and honor, we cultivate and live in the experience of organic symbiosis.

18 Our evolution toward multi-dimensional memory grows as we agree to process all of our experience. Judgement gives way to discernment, blame to admission, we are on our way. The current human sojourn has been introducing us to our own bloodline heritage, it's magical connection to celestial seeding as well as it's distractions from Creation's infinite perfection. Our local human perspective takes on galactic proportions when we remember who we are as holographic spiritual beings having a temporal human experience. This interacting experience occurs within a vast universal congruency called perfection. Perfection is not to be confused with an ideal relative to a paradigm. Perfection is and always will be. As we embrace perfection our bio evolution takes on a journey of bloodline healing, which can also be referred to as galactic wake-up or galactic alignment. We are in a process of remembering as opposed to learning.

19 We live and function within a vast perfection where harmonic congruency threads through multi-layers of experience and knowing. As we awaken to an exalted self we are able to ride upon a rainbow of grand parallels and experience life from a holographic footing. Anchoring our self acceptance within our local chosen bloodlines brings acknowledgment to many facets of who we are. A reverberation of exalted bliss lights harmonic threads of multi-dimensional congruency yielding a reunion of celestial company.

20 Galactic Alignment: From an astro physical perspective galactic alignment can be described as a centering of our local solar system, a positioning within the zodiac of the 12 constellations such that a centering occurs. As our holographic sense of reading reality awakens we can see first hand the limitations of rationalizing from a linear logical perspective. We can witness how the discombobulated human makes a major fuss over trivial things and remains oblivious to the vaster reaches of their/our multi-dimensional identity. Accepting false truths humanity has been rendered multi-dimensionally lazy. Humanity has become trapped in linear mind. For example we can choose to know galactic alignment as a result of the place our solar system is moving into within the galaxy and universe, or we can choose to know galactic alignment as a correlation between an astro physical time space alignment and the progressive awakening to self as a multi-dimensional entity. When we choose to perceive events holographically we drop the need to qualify our experiences by answering them relative to a preset paradigm. Instead we accept events for what they allow us to experience. Our evolving self acceptance correlates with the position of our local solar system and gives holographic multi-dimensional congruency to our memory recall and to the activation of personal ancient codes.

21 Soulstar astrology as a holographic methodology for reading astrological charts allows a perspective which depicts the experience of pulling into one's memory their galactic proportion. An individual's personal birth chart is read as a coding which describes the merging of their bloodline self to the celestial seeding creator self. From a holographic perspective astrology describes the four selves with a galactic congruency.

22 Four star meditation (4 five pointed stars):

By identifying the following 4 selves from our own personal perspective we can sync lock to the galactic alignment which is occurring on many layers of reality.

Here are the four selves and some keys words and phrases which resonate with their identity.

Self 1: Temporal self (Inner Collective) Picture self as a green pentagram.

Instinctual self, Personal energy management, Food as what we eat breathe and experience as impressions, Lives within a time space reality, Physical survival, Pursues terrestrial paradigms, Lives through the 5 senses, The mechanics of the human bio-vehicle, Nourished by Gaia, Entrains to the local environment through rhythm sound dance and chant, Primordial impulse, Socially dependant, Divine emotional indifference, Bio mechanical human.

Self 2: I AM self (Inner Personal) Picture self as a red pentagram.

The playful eternal child self, Experiences the joy of authenticity, Frolicking dolphin self, Experiences beginners luck, Playfulness, Self love, Individual creative expression, Spirit having a human experience, Impeccable self acceptance, I AM Presence, Intellectually indifferent, Loving uniqueness absent of rational qualification.

Self 3: Relationship self (Outer Personal) Picture self as a blue pentagram.

Sharing values, Adores partner, Materialistic indifference, Passionate, The enchanted lover, Identifying process behind events, Soul Mates, Accepts the justice of self mirroring, Expanding within a holographic world, Divine sexual experience, Pure receptivity, Adventures in sharing.

Self 4: Oneness self (Outer Collective) Picture self as a yellow pentagram.

Self who knows that all is allowed, Peace as Creator's infinite allowing, Knows brilliance as allowing, Inspirational indifference, Inspiration absent of judgement, Everything is connected, Infinity, Impeccable discernment, Self who feels we are one, Perfection is forever, Divine nonchalance, Creator's decree, The spacious now, Unconditional love, Atmosphere of absolute unquestioned mutual trust that all is one.

23 Fire The Grid: Here is a suggestion for this meditation. During the fire the grid meditation hour you can choose to personally identify these four selves. Feel each version of yourself. This is a feeling identification as opposed to a rational one. You can then follow this with a self to self introduction within your self. That is a total of 12 introductions. During each of the 12 introductions you can choose to feel and experience the galactic alignment which is occurring on multi realms. Your personal clarity will evolve and galvanize your personal evolution which will contribute to a grand merging of the cosmic grid with the Earth grid. Keeping it simple you need only picture the four pentagram stars and their colors and allow Spirit to do the rest. The notes here describing each self can be consider as reference. Trust that in your intention all will be aligned and arranged as it needs to be.

The twelve introductions:

1. Temporal self meets I AM self.
  2. Temporal self meets Relationship self.
  3. Temporal self meets Oneness self.
  4. I AM self meets Temporal self.
  5. I AM self meets Relationship self.
  6. I Am self meets Oneness self.
  7. Relationship self meets Temporal self.
  8. Relationship self meets I AM self.
  9. Relationship self meets Oneness self.
  10. Oneness self meets Temporal self.
  11. Oneness self meets I AM self.
  12. Oneness self meets Relationship self.
- It is like four people meeting each other.

Again as a part of your meditation once you finish the 12 introductions you can merge them. Picture a pyramid (square base, four triangular sides) and visualize each of the four selves as one of the four sides. As you feel the pyramid coming together feel it's mutual resonance with all the pyramids which exist on our planet, including those which remain buried beneath the Earth's surface, those in Egypt, the Mayan pyramids, and those which exist on the ocean floor. Feel the capstone of your pyramid coming alive, feel a vertical axis forming, connecting the capstone to the floor of the pyramid and extending to the core of Earth and shooting up to the stars. Feel the cosmic excitement and enchantment as the cosmic grid aligns with the Earth grid through the awaken consciousness which is this vertical extension of your own capstone.

24 There are many worlds, or versions of reality, versions of experience, which co exist in the same space as our own apparent solid world. These can, from our version of reality, be known as probable worlds which branch off our time line at some point. Through the personal and universal congruency of our intention to become galactically aware and informed we will potentially merge back with some of these probable worlds. These other probable versions of our existence were able to merge different versions of consciousness with out the need to annihilate them. We can, hence, tune into worlds where harmony was allowed and merging was embraced. As we clear through the distractions and become consciousness cooks we will be able to delight taste and appreciate a festival of experience where humanities races and cultures were able to meld in harmony. As we conceive of such melding and act as if it already exists we will resonate with a much expanded version of human unity and global unity. Our ability to feel and accept the merging of worlds will literally affect the healing of an Earth which has been torn apart and fought over. Exaggerated needs for solid world security create tyrannical moments which reflect our own disconnection between our four selves and render us incapable of galactic memory. We need simply play with the idea of a galactic alignment on a personal, global, and solar level and invite these probable versions of Earth's time lines into our experience. In the playful notion of believing that there are versions of ourselves reaching out to us in our world we can agree to meet.

SOULSTAR ASTROLOGY NEW MOON REPORT

28 day forecast

Day 1 July 14 2007 Saturday

As we approach this Moon cycle of Cancer energy we want to allow ourselves to feel the quality of this nurturing energy in it's richness.

We want to choose our intentions with clarity, allowing those intentions to spring form our excitement. With the new Moon in Cancer perhaps we are inspired to nurturer ourselves, rebirth ourselves. In a sense the Cancer new Moon gives birth to what began on Summer Solstice. The Sun will ingress Leo this Moon cycle and so our intentions may be the anchoring and birthing of a playful self, a Christed, an I AM self. As we embrace Gaia as our organic bio mother we want to be sure to acknowledge her today, let her know she is appreciated, loved and considered. If we are considering a metaphoric return to the womb in someway today we can also spread our intention to include the cradle of existence Gaia provides us as well. We will sleep well tonight knowing we are considered so tenderly and lovingly. We want to take the time to love the land which has allowed us to make our home here. As we approach this Moon cycle of Cancer energy we want to allow ourselves to feel the quality of this nurturing energy in it's richness. We can identify nurturing energy in many things, in our family and home, on a planetary level, and on a galactic and universal level. As we expand the experience of nurturing energy out in to the stars we travel via the resonance of sensitive emotional energy that entrains parents and babe as one.

Day 2 July 15 2007 Sunday

As we trust in Gaia, act as if Gaia will provide for us, act as if she is considering us, we can choose her opinion and birth ourselves form that opinion. We can choose and thus adventure through consciousness.

We want to pay close attention to when we need validation from another as a means to feel good about our self. Everything is someone's opinion and someone's experience. As we choose our stance in life we imply a truth which defines that stance, where did this definition originate? We can choose and thus adventure through consciousness. As we agree to participate in consciousness from a certain opinion how aware are we of how much choice has been awarded us. We inherit pretty well all our points of view from others yet do not always recognize that these points of view became our truths. As we trust in Gaia, act as if Gaia will provide for us, act as if she is considering us, we can choose her opinion and birth ourselves from that opinion. As we consider just how much choice and how many opinions are available for us to experience we can't help but be tickled pink with delight as to what tomorrow will bring. Knowing that all realities originated in opinion and point of view we can explore vertically and diagonally, or any way, and discover parallel worlds which separate themselves from our typical experience simply by having a different point of view.

Day 3 July 16 2007 Monday

Our wonderful body and it's amazing innate intelligence has it's own opinion which it asserts chemically. When the space we share honors the compassionate connection between all others no matter who they are this harmony will be the light we shine.

Day 4 July 17 2007 Tuesday

One thing Spirit will do once we give Spirit permission to merge with us is make more space for itself within our temporal reality. This means aligning our local human bodies, physical, mental, emotional, and etheric, toward greater harmonic alignment. As we give permission for Spirit merging and alignment an inner healing takes place.

If the quality of our self admiration has been tested over the past two days then today can be a tuning and adjusting to a more authentic understanding of the self image which will best serve our commitments. As Spirit having a human experience we can choose, during meditation, to allow Spirit to merge with us, to participate with us as we experience our reality. Spirit knows the ropes sort of speak from an expanded perspective. One thing Spirit will do once we give Spirit permission to merge with us is make more space for itself within our temporal reality. This means aligning our local human bodies, physical, mental, emotional, and etheric, toward greater harmonic alignment. As we give permission for Spirit merging and alignment an inner healing takes place. Embracing an alignment of our four bodies allows our holographic awareness to align with solar, galactic, and universal congruency. We expand our reach through out our own multi-dimensional identity correlating with the merging of the many worlds our Spirit self is aware of. Being along for the ride we become valuable to the intentions seeded before our human birth. Our divine purpose is allowed to flower, our memory beyond that of the local human paradigm and dilemma is expanded, made sense of on a vaster divine scale. As flowers of celestial intention we make up a garden of harmony and beauty.

Day 5 July 18 2007 Wednesday

Knowing the role our ego has typically played we can be tricky with our ego and allow much of what we have figured or rationalized in the past to be forgotten. Tuning and adjusting our sense of self brings us closer and closer to a personal authentic alignment which will ultimately parallel the galactic alignment which is influencing the many worlds we currently exist in.

Day 6 July 19 2007 Thursday

We can benefit from examining our life, our purpose, and ourselves and not seek answers which explain these things but to question how these things are affected by automatic assumptions about who we think we are. The power to birth and to nurturer can be felt on many levels, it can be felt in our home, it can be felt as an active decree by Gaia, and it can be felt from the stars. As we feel these grand parallels to which nurturing associates us, we can feel the nurturing impulse for a revolutionary change supported by a cradle within a cosmic existence.

Day 7 July 20 2007 Friday

Our optimism and the gifting of ourselves evolves to include the awareness of our security and connection to the nurturing goddess energy of Gaia. Our authentic self may be as a light to others. When we agree to share our light and inspiration with others by maintaining a self acceptance we turn ourselves to the deep far reaching frequency of compassion which lovingly links all beings in compassion and love, we are one.

Day 8 July 21 2007 Saturday

Owning our part in past relationship dramas frees us to participate in the adventure of new and current relationships. Having admitted and owned any feeling reaction to an event we are able to stop reiterating an undesirable scene which can consume our experience in the external world.

Day 9 July 22 2007 Sunday

We will experience much healing energy just by anticipating our involvement in a divine coupling. And yet there is much more adventure which follows or parallels our experience within a divine coupling.

Day 10 July 23 2007 Monday

Breaking from paradigms which define how resources are shared affect understandings of selflessness. Organic integrity is allowed a foundation replacing hoarding and assumed ownership of what is naturally shared. Being clear about what and who we have allowed to be our authority brings our attention to who acts as if they own the Earth.

Day 11 July 24 2007 Tuesday

Many old beliefs which previously blocked us from creative involvement have been removed, a new freedom is there for the young at heart. Life's events spring from inner connections which occur at deep levels of emotional and sensual knowing. As we acknowledge our value to Spirit and Gaia we can loosen up the controls and frolic with our own expressions of creativity.

Day 12 July 25 2007 Wednesday

The choice a person moves on when conflict hits close to home will speak for them revealing where their loyalty lies, with either an inner authority or with an external authority. No matter what habits linger on in our dealing with difficulties we certainly have the choice to demonstrate free will and decide to act as if we create our own reality by admitting that at some level we are creating the difficulty.

Day 13 July 26 2007 Thursday

Our commitment to a relationship can lead to healing and self acceptance, inspiration is allowed unconditionally. If our beliefs are supported by control paradigms our rationalizations will keep us locked in limitation, our ability to envision an authentic expression of our creativity will lack originality. We may be inspired to seek an enriched sensual relationship with our partner in order that self admiration can be felt on the deepest of organic levels.

Day 14 July 27 2007 Friday

Holding the frequency of an auspicious self we can indeed feel this new self merging with all life. Past beliefs which we did not necessarily know we were holding become obvious. We can feel purification of our self acceptance paralleling a global transformation which is affecting all humanity.

Day 15 July 28 2007 Saturday

Working with others including Spirit allows projects to be expedited and intentions realized. When for example we agree to really let go when facilitating an artistic expression, one of a sensual nature, we realize it was not just us who was involved in the expression.

Day 16 July 29 2007 Sunday

Holographically we receive volumes of information and insight within but a moment of delight. Personal situations in our life which were considered from a rational perspective to be completely divorced from each other are indeed very married.

Day 17 July 30 2007 Monday

What once seemed difficult may now come much more effortlessly. Our ability to flow with modern day revolutions may just be presenting new opportunities for our career agenda.

Day 18 July 31 2007 Tuesday

Being delighted with our unique form of intuition we want to get right into the dynamics of interaction, carrying out intentions as our goals merge with others. We can pick up data through our ability to be objective when we encounter others, we say "what is your opinion?" and then pay attention to the emotional dialogue which envelopes the shared environment.

Day 19 August 1 2007 Wednesday

When we are clear and accepting to the belief that we are holographic beings having a human experience our feelings become an objective read of our experiences. Keeping such a perspective allows us to witness reality and be objective as to what we are experiencing. Accepting our emotions and feelings for their sheer ability to stretch out and ride into vaster territories of truth than our rational mind we become abundant in our awareness.

Day 20 August 2 2007 Thursday

Remembering to question what qualifies a repeating rationalization exposes beliefs which we may not know we were holding onto. By identifying where and how we seek acknowledgment and appreciation externally we can see how our inspirational congruency and frequency become shattered.

Day 21 August 3 2007 Friday

Relationship dynamics as in couplings have the potential to move into states which will bring much healing into the body. Mutual resonance between persons either in couplings or groups has increased marking the uniqueness of these times.

Day 22 August 4 2007 Saturday

We are not alone. Our path to sovereignty when shared freely likens us to our cosmic family of light.

Day 23 August 5 2007 Sunday

When self concerns challenge relationship demands it can be dealt with by identifying what the situation allows us to experience. Commitment to evolution and self awareness differ from one person to the next, not everyone holds the same type of commitments.

Day 24 August 6 2007 Monday

The quality of our security, what is acceptable in terms of security, changes as we grow in self awareness. As our self image is reconstructed the foundation upon which our self image is supported also changes.

Day 25 August 7 2007 Tuesday

As we come to terms with our own history of denial simply by admitting how we have created new versions of old relationship dramas we get bumped up the ladder of self awareness. Our state of allowing and acceptance of our current partnership ripens further as we rebirth ourselves within our relationship and encourage expressions of sharing all which we value and treasure.

Day 26 August 8 2007 Wednesday

As we tune into the realities available to us through frequency resonance and frequency holding we will be able to navigate a grand awakening. The symbiotic frequencies are a valuable healing song for people who hold conflict in the body.

Day 27 August 9 2007 Thursday

As we accept our spiritual awakening and the evolution of our bio vehicle we are called to be clear and discerning. From a discerning perspective we become aware of how panic over security issues has allowed intimidating energies to access the attention of the fearful.

Day 28 August 10 2007 Friday

With the increase reach of our emotional sensitivity we are able to bring into being a deeper understanding of our relationships and the richness which mutual exploring of sensuality can yield.
