Introduction

The following description merges astrophysical data at the moment of new Moon with archetypal patterns garnered from astrological correlations which are then harmonized with the premise that Creator's infinite perfection is first, has been first and always will be first. All is perfection.

The balance and harmony during moment of new Moon has the potential to manifest Joy in your life as you allow yourself to be your own authority. During new Moon how we reflect on who we are and our I Am merge. This creates opportunities to initiate new beginnings.

Through the clarity of my mind I connect and communicate with others, knowing WE ARE ONE and their presence like my own is the presence of Creator. The teacher within me awakens and boldly holds the intention to be in the loop of Creator's awareness. The strength to remember who I am manifests through my ability to own my emotional reactions. Since I am impeccable at being my own authority, I am, as my God Spirit self, the architect of my experience. As we listen, speak, and share our experience with each other we are quick to find the spiritual reason behind our immediate responsibilities as these selfless duties and our attention to them is the purification of humanities truth about who we are. I am committed to remembering who I am as a God Spirit being in human form.

To access the opportunities of new Moon energy you must be clear about being your own authority. When it comes to your own healing and awakening know that you must do it your self. Move into a state of self responsibility. There are things you have to do yourself, no one else can take your hand and fix certain things. These things are set-ups designed to show you your power to balance and harmonize your living dynamics by accepting them as your creations. The part of you who is absolutely clear that you create your own reality, who knows that life is a mirror, is the part of you who can ride this rainbow of energy with willful expression, holding frequency intention enthusiastically and joyously through to manifestation. Your sense of magnified self acceptance will serve you well during new Moon period.

General Description

01 As we strengthen our connection with personal inspirational energies we experience a strengthened connection with Mother Earth, our security is assured. The electromagnetic reality of Gaia's symbiotic harmony is a dynamic dance. We are of course invited to partake in the richness of this organic and magical celebration. In a sense we are already involved. Being involved we affect the overall quality of the dance and the harmony which is shared by all Earth creatures. The comforts of security and abundant living are qualified by human interaction within the organic interplay. Distraction as paradigms which define security based on a darwinistic approach to comprehending security, lead humanity to desire a particular type of security and the intended satisfaction it implies. Our sensuality on the other hand allows a merging where our value as a thread becomes shared within this larger organic tapestry. This orgasmic experience rushes into our body and awakens ancient memory which exists within us while paralleling Gaia's transformation.

02 Our ability to expand a moment is an innate talent attributed to the acceptance and acknowledgment of our essence. As we participate within existence through our experiences we value and follow our emotions and feelings. Our experience expands outward embracing more and more vastness as we simply allow emotional sensitivity to stretch out and merge with life. Our intention to have a good time directs our experience toward a merging which qualifies such an experience. Through a process of mental qualification we align our experience to a predefined belief. Accepting that our feeling exploration of the vastness which exists in the moment is free from the need to be mentally qualified we enrich our experience. It is our will which intends the experience and our feelings and emotion which show us the terrain, and it is our rational mind which drops the anchor. We can engage an inspired self by acting as if there is no such thing as an answer to a question. That questions are instead choices which discern and direct our exploration toward our experience. When we subdue the need to answer a question and instead value our question for the potential experience it directs us toward we can see so called answers from an entirely different light. Questions and their adventures toward experience begin to lead us into new realms which generate more questions, more opportunities for expanding our moment.

03 Being objective and accepting to the bio-mechanical nature of our interaction with space time we can explore alternative ways to enrich our human experience. We are not rejecting this robotic nature, we are admitting it. By admitting it we can choose to be our own personal bio mechanical mechanic, minding our health and remaining most effective for an encounter with the great unknown. We expand our experience within the bio mechanical vehicle by moving attention to an observer or witness self. Our witness self is able to let our essence come forward and take a more prominent role in our bio mechanical experience.

04 Events which occur out of the norm can be considered god sends, especially if they get our attention by being traumatic enough to break the zombie trance. In a case where fake personality became the known self as a long term reoccurring experience, the arrival of trauma may be so foreign to the individual that a viable alternative to comprehend the traumatic experience may be out of immediate reach. And yet the triggering experience could not be considered traumatic if an alternative self was not present to make such a discernment.

05 Our journey becomes our choice. To allow the points of view of others and the paradigms which support these beliefs to reign over us designing our life we agree to be herded from one experience to another. These experiences are qualified by underlining paradigms, paradigms which in many cases have become unknown to the society which defines itself within them. When we choose to own our anxiety, frustration, or anger we can unlock the control, the mind control, and step outside the paradigm fences which contain within them enough suggestions to define entire life times.

06 During our daily routine we can choose to do things differently. Sometimes when we choose to change and do things differently we break through hardened patterns. Our ability to regulate and control the quality of our experience is determined by our ability to recognize ourselves beyond the typical patterns which mobilize us as bio-mechanical human vehicles. To be in recognition of the dynamic between who we are as Spirit and who we are as the bio-human our perception of any moment is expanded. When we are able to witness our bio mechanical nature in an accepting and loving way we are given more intimate control of our bio mechanical self, a mutual trust between who we are as Spirit and who we as the bio mechanical vehicle is developed. Developing such a trust we loosen the constraint defined by any archetypal pattern we have previously adopted. From this place of expansion we are given access to alternative experiences.

07 Acknowledging personal unique inspiration and creativity as a truthful and authentic expression of ourselves and Spirit we are able to be in joy and harmony with the collective oneness which surrounds our terrestrial experience. This awakening to clarity as a shaping of self knowing is experienced during the Saturn in Leo transit. Saturn in Leo began in mid July of 2005 and finishes with a Virgo ingress during the last week of this current Moon cycle, September 2nd. A clearly defined self with clearly defined commitments has been delineated during this time. The alignments during this current new Moon add and amplify intentions which give energy to personal evolution, our local inspirations merge with their galactic proportions. A clearly known eternal child self will ride the waves of it's inspiration merging with galactic proportions which parallel a personal enthusiasm. Since the Venus kiss and transit of June 8th 2004 an eight year cycle which extends to June 2012 began. During this eight year cycle Venus draws a five petalled flower or five pointed star around Earth. This Moon cycle she, Venus, is bringing us a Leo kiss. Can you feel it? Your inspired eternal child self certainly can. During these final days of Saturn in Leo, retrograde Venus softens the edge on any concern as to having personal importance externally validated. Hanging on to externally defined paradigms as a means to be acknowledged can be hard, where as embracing a unique inspired self is most exciting, these are exciting times!

08 Accepting personal authenticity is to accept personal uniqueness, the essence of one's inspiration does not require intellectual validation. The ability to hold your new Moon intention rides upon your ability to be clear that intellectual qualification of a specific nature is not apart of the mix. Intellectual qualification is to be objective and indifferent. This will allow your personal unique inspirational quality to lead your intention into manifestation. Relationship dynamics will flesh out where personal inspiration is not trusted. Pay attention to where relationship dynamics occur and intellectualizing seeps into inspired intention. When and if this occurs you want to own your beliefs which define your compassion and humanitarianism. Leo based intentions have an inspirational nonchalance and so to hold this auspicious Leo frequency you must be able to rid yourself of validating or qualifying your inspiration intellectually. This can be challenging if one's compassion definition is distorted in anyway. Neptune in Aquarius opposes the new Moon in Leo and there is no escaping one's denial of oneness if one is to hold their new Moon intention during this Moon cycle. The silver lining here is to flesh out beliefs which limit a realistic connection with compassion and humanitarianism. This fleshing out occurs in relationship scenarios when the relating individuals share values. These values could be property, yet the real value shared here is more sensual in nature. Look for impatience as a signal. Perhaps too much emotional energy driving intellectualized concepts do not allow orgasmic experience to greet the relating dynamic. If those holding this Leo wave of inspired intention are intellectually specific a bumpy road will challenge their behavior. Denial in the form of arrogance is a well known Leo manoeuvre to move energy and vent frustration. Leo composure is maintained by admitting and owning frustration as one's own creation. One's authentic self admiration provides them a courage to come face to face with their personal beliefs, thus revealing an ongoing ownership over their individuality these beliefs have allowed.

09 A partner may go a little out of his or her way to show that they can communicate harmoniously. It is good to talk about goals and ambitions, intentions and affirmations. Speaking about each others plans helps keep a balance within the partnership. If you need to tell your partner about some of your new personal boundaries then this Moon cycle will be a good time to do so. Best before the last quarter Moon. You may want to talk about how the relationship affects your personal goals and vice versa. Your partner will most likely appreciate your speaking up, the sharing taken as a sign of appreciating and acknowledging the relationship.

10 We enrich our connection with Spirit when we take the time to acknowledge and honor Mother Earth. For the celestial pagan, who is intent on living life in that personal space where Heaven and Earth meet, you have no choice you must have your cake and eat it too. Creature comforts pursued through paradigms which do not celebrate the loving providing quality of Mother Earth lead one to discover the distractions which contradict the sensual urge of the awakening sovereign human. Through admission and ownership all is recovered, a return of the eternal child as the mature awakened self resurrects divinity and all the juicy interactions which epitomize a grand celebration of Gaia's return to her galactic family.

11 Our ability to like and admire ourselves will free our boldness which is expressed as action packed confidence. We think in terms of self confidence boosting our intentions. Intending to communicate with confidence will bring clarity of mind. Being clear about our unique personal version of creative expression will assist as we feel inspired to check out our self defined boundaries. Our ability to be discerning will be based on our ability to embrace our own unique inspirations. Through a personal audacious stance we allow life to accept and greet us in an open and loving manner. Our current self acceptance may feel like an old friend, returning now to say I accept and love you because you are now participating in life as your own unique authentic self. Holding the frequency of our authentic self we are completely objective as we accept our feelings and emotions. Being able to own all our feeling reactions while remaining assertive with self interest we shine like stars.

12 Our body itself begins to respond in ways we didn't know or expect, "I didn't know I could do that". Talents are fleshed out by our intention to enjoy the moment. The nuance of the moment exposes the crack in the paradigm wall, a wall of control setup by external authority. Our emotional feeling self which characterizes our essence has an affiliation with holographic awareness which our logical mind was not necessarily aware of. Through the experience and expressions of our awareness of our essence we are able to purge the boundaries of pre-fabricated understanding as to what reality is and plunge into a rich diverse experience beyond logical description. A mere glimpse through such a crack connects us to a richness of experience, a richness of understanding. We receive volumes of information on a single subject in a moment which would take weeks or months to record. Our character selves are redefined, their value and purpose shifted in our understanding of things. Our characters become doorways to other worlds just waiting for us to explore. We enter the crack by suggesting that our character self is merely the facade, the container holding a very valuable essence.

13 Our essence has the stretch to move between concepts, to bend understanding, to grasp holographically the richness of the moment. We are in fact much more essence in our make up than character. Our character selves can be adjusted, changed, tuned, kind of like buying new clothes or getting some exercise, learning some new skill or sport, like dancing or music, taking up sky diving. We are not necessarily restrained by our current character definition. This definition, from our objective witness self's perception, can easily be seen as malleably, changeable, even discardable. Our current characters can be upgraded, altered or tuned, allowing us to experience another version of typical experience. The nuance of a moment when valued is like a key to a world of wonder and magic. The explorer within us wants to come out and play, to experience, we know this when we find ourselves admitting our own boredom. We can see the huge role our attitude plays in what we allow ourselves to experience.

28 day description

Day 1 August 12 2007 Sunday

It is up to us as individuals to be impeccably clear as to where we place our authority. Our mental habits are the result of paradigm entrainment and yet our inspired creative unique self is mentally indifferent. It is up to us to be able to know ourselves absent of the need to formulate intellectual qualification. Many dogmas and paradigms have, in recent times, shown us their limitation in terms of current value. We can choose to be a multi dimensional node point, a human anchor, our experience, our presence, can be a place where dimensions merge. These are indeed unique times and so it is not unusual that what awakens as our authority is undefinable.

Day 2 August 13 2007 Monday

On a personal level our inspiration remains intact when we nonchalantly feel no need to qualify it intellectually at the beck and call of others. At the same time, without hesitation, we extend the right to be individually creative to any other who graces our life. When our intentions are a natural extension of our personal home frequency, our own M O, then these intentions will lead us to their manifestation in a shared world.

Day 3 August 14 2007 Tuesday

As we come to know ourselves as an evolving self we can be graceful as we accept the evolution of those we share our experience with. Our body is rich with codes, rich with potential to stretch out and reach electromagnetically into other versions of life in our galaxy and universe, who are we but a company of starfriends.

Day 4 August 15 2007 Wednesday

We can choose an auspicious version of self which calls to us ancient energies, galactic energies, or we can choose a version of self which is defined by the current local paradigms, all is allowed. As we set the tone for our foundation we imply an accepted version of self.

Day 5 August 16 2007 Thursday

Grand orders of truth once kept distant from humanity through controlled dogmas and designed paradigms are now available to us. Now we reach that moment where we confirm our commitment by redefining ourselves integrating these truths, we are moving beyond a recent banquet of insights into a rebirth of self awareness. As we continue to discover plans within plans we can sense personal connections entraining us to our own divine unfolding.
